NOTE: With more entries than expected in 1997, the M&M Beverage Enduro field was split into two 100-lap events, grouped by car number. Dan Benoit, driving #74, won the Enduro for even-numbered cars, while Matt Martin, driving #135, won the Enduro for odd-numbered cars. Martin's event was "odd" for another reason, and will go down in history as the only race at Thunder Road to ever be run in a clockwise direction, with drivers making right-hand turns instead of the traditional left!
